

Newsletter Friday 4th October 2024

Dear Parents & Carers,

Communication

Please let the school know if your contact details have changed. We have had issues recently with phone numbers which are no longer in use.

Thank you.

Arrangements at the beginning and end of school.

We know that it can be very busy at drop off and pick up time. In order to reduce congestion on the roads outside school, some cars have been parked on the pavement. However, this can make it difficult, and sometimes dangerous, for pedestrians. Please consider this when dropping off and collecting your children. Thank you.

Cross country

Y3,4,5 and 6 travelled to Richmond School to take part in a cross-country competition. Every single person ran their socks off and they were all beautifully well-behaved. Thank you as well to the adults who came to help.

Macmillan Coffee Morning

Last week we had a very successful Coffee Morning which raised nearly £600 for Macmillan and Purple for Polio. This means that we will be planting 1500 purple crocus corms ready for the spring!

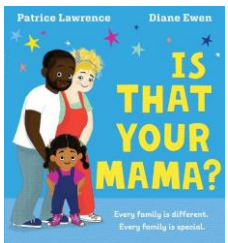

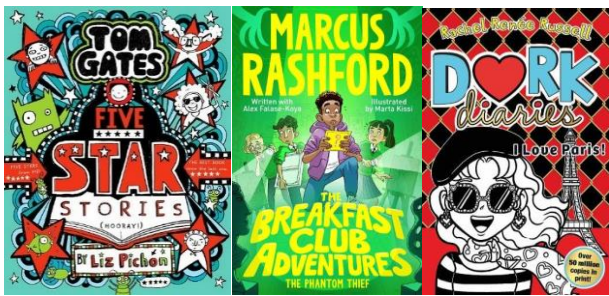

It was great to see so many of our families and friends there. Thank you for your generous donations of time, money AND cakes!

Scholastic Book Fair – 15th - 22nd October.

The Book Fair is coming to school again and will be with us for just under a week. In the three cases, there will be something for every pocket to assist with the rise in the cost of living.

Approximately 30% of titles are under £5.

There are some new releases in the cases which will probably prove to be very popular!

More details to follow next week

School Council.

The School Council will be contributing to the school's newsletter and here is their first item:

Being in the School Council is a big role in the school. We ensure that everyone has a fun time during lessons and break time. Every class has a school council rep from reception to year six. In year six, there are two senior pupils who meet with the Governors once every half term.

On the 8th November we are hosting a coffee morning for Cancer Research. We would like children to wear pink, blue or white. As school council reps, we would like a one-pound donation and a cake(optional). With the cake, we would like it in the packet for dietary requirements.

Thank you
